Father Fred Enman Recieves BC Alumni Award

Congratulations to BCLS staff member Frederick M. Enman, S.J., who was honored by the Boston College Alumni Association on Thursday, September 21, 2000, in their annual Awards Ceremony and Reception.

Enman received an Award of Excellence for his service to the school and for his work on Matthew 25, a private non-profit corporation he founded in 1988. The mission of Matthew 25 is to provide food relief and housing relief to people in economic need. The group is ecumenical and interfaith. More information on Matthew 25.
