Blum Selected for Fulbright Specialist Project

2013 NEWS ARCHIVE04/04/13

Newton, MA--Professor E. Joan Blum of the Law School has been selected by the University of Sarajevo Faculty of Law for a Fulbright Specialist project scheduled to run from April 14 through May 8.

The project involves consulting with curriculum planners on expanding experiential learning opportunities for students and includes presentations to and discussions with faculty as well as an intensive demonstration course for 20 students that will meet daily for two weeks.

The course, "Introduction to U.S. Advisory Practice" will provide an introduction to the U.S. legal system and to legal problem solving through a simulated problem that places students in the position of a practicing business lawyer.
